What your sponsorship supports.

Health Resources for an underserved community

In South Central Los Angeles, many residents struggle to find accessible medical care due to shortages of providers accepting Medi-Cal and persistent underinvestment in health infrastructure in low-income communities of color.

Workforce Development

Residents of South Central Los Angeles faces historically high unemployment and limited access to economic opportunities. Drew League Foundation introduces job-seeking youth and adults to workforce opportunities with numerous local organizations.

Youth Activities

Residents of South Central has faced historic disinvestment in green spaces for youth recreation, making the sports programming at Drew League Foundation a vital interention providing safe spaces for youth to exersize and play.
